3. NAME AND DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM
Seminar on the Multinational Corporation

4. YOUR TRAINING OBJECTIVES
To become more familiar with the impact of multinational corporations on international economic problems.

5. EVALUATION OF PROGRAM (Include: a. Strengths and weaknesses of program. b. Identify any outstanding speakers and their specific topics or area of instructional competence.)

The Seminar on Multinational Corporations was a very stimulating and educational exercise. The current political and economic environment, domestic and international, was the subject covered by the speakers. These speakers represented a variety of perspectives, from the highly academic and theoretical to the very practical realities.

Any seminar of this type will satisfy some participants more than others. Personally, I believe there were too many speakers from the Legislative branch of the US Government and not enough from the Executive branch and from private business. Among the most interesting speakers I would list Gus Tyler who presented the labor point of view; Professor C. Fred Bergsten; Sir Douglas Fletcher, Jamaican Ambassador to the US; and Edward M. Bernstein, President of EMB, Ltd. Bernstein gave a very lucid explanation of the international monetary crisis brought on by the huge outflow of dollars to the OPEC countries. Professor Ronald Muller of American University gave the most controversial talk. His discussion consisted of his research and personal views on the impact (negative) of the MNC's on the underdeveloped world.
